5.2.40 In their relationship with the Company, its directors, shareholders, and employees, and the other members of the Board of Directors, the provisional Director undertakes to behave with respect, good faith, fairness, and courtesy, and to not infringe upon the honor, reputation, or dignity of these individuals, nor of the natural and legal persons with whom they interact in the exercise of their mandate, through the use of offensive expressions, the formulation of slanderous complaints or grievances, or the disclosure of aspects of private life;

5.2.41 To ensure equal opportunities and treatment for the Company's employees and directors, not to grant preferential treatment or discriminate against access or promotion within the company based on discriminatory criteria, personal relationships, or other criteria inconsistent with the applicable legal framework;

5.2.42 To attend and cast their vote at every meeting of the Board of Directors and to sign the minutes of the Board of Directors meetings they attend personally or as a mandatory, as prepared by the meeting secretariat;

5.2.43 To provide the Company, in the form and within the deadlines it specifies, with the documents and information requested by the Company for the execution of various legal or statutory obligations related to the Director;

5.2.44 The public tutelary authority may terminate the mandate contracts of the members of the board, respectively the supervisory board, prior to term, due to non-attributable causes, in order to fulfill the milestones or targets established in the National Recovery and Resilience Plan of Romania. In this case, the compensatory remunerations contractually established for revocation without just cause or untimely revocation provided in these mandate contracts are legally reduced to a maximum value of one remuneration;

5.2.45 The provisional Director undertakes that after the termination of this contract, regardless of the cause of termination, they shall not hold a position of administration or management in an enterprise in direct competition with the Company, for a period of 3 (three) years.

5.2.46 The provisional Director undertakes to respect and implement all Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders, in accordance with the provisions of the incident legislation.

Art.6. Rights and Obligations of the Company

6.1 Rights of the Company

6.1.1 The Company has the right to request and receive from the provisional Director information, reports, and other documents regarding the fulfillment of their mandate;

6.1.2 The Company has the right to initiate liability actions and claims for damages caused to the Company by the Director through the breach of duties stipulated by law and the Articles of Incorporation;

6.1.3 The Company has any other rights provided by law, the Articles of Incorporation, and the internal regulations adopted within the Company;

6.1.4 The Company has the right to request in writing any type of information regarding the activity of the members of the Board of Directors and to receive a response within a maximum of 10 calendar days from the request.

6.2 Obligations of the Company

6.2.1 The Company has the obligation to pay the remuneration to the provisional Director under the conditions established by this contract;

6.2.2 The Company has the obligation to bear the costs of the provisional Director's professional liability insurance, as well as other benefits provided in the Articles of Incorporation;

6.2.3 The Company has the obligation to pay the Director's compensation provided for in Article 5.1.1, Article 5.1.2 letter a and b, and Article 5.2.44;

6.2.4 The Company has the obligation to ensure all conditions for the provisional Director to carry out their activity through their full freedom in the exercise of the mandate, in accordance with the legal provisions in force.

Art. 7. Liability of the Parties

7.1 The non-fulfillment and/or improper fulfillment of the obligations undertaken by any of the signatory parties to this contract shall entail the liability of the defaulting party;

7.2 The provisional Director shall be liable for culpable non-compliance with:

- (i) the obligation to implement the Administration Plan in order to achieve the objectives contained therein and to fulfill the financial and non-financial performance indicators;
- (ii) the provisions of this Mandate Contract;
- (iii) the provisions of resolutions adopted by the Company's General Meeting of Shareholders;
- (iv) the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation.

7.3 The provisional Director shall not breach the obligation of prudence and diligence and shall not be liable if, at the time of making a business decision, they are reasonably entitled to believe that they are acting in the best interest of the Company and on the basis of adequate information;

7.4 The provisional Director shall be liable for any damages suffered by the Company as a result of their culpable non-fulfillment of the duties and obligations provided for in this Mandate Contract, the Articles of Incorporation, the Board ROF (Board of Directors' Organization and Operation Regulations), GMS resolutions, or the Legal Framework, in accordance with the applicable legal provisions.

Art. 8. Conditions for the Amendment, Termination, and Renewal of the Mandate

8.1 This contract shall be amended by mutual agreement of the parties, expressed through an additional act concluded in compliance with the substantive and formal conditions provided by law for its execution, or, as the case may be, as a result of subsequent legislative changes affecting the contractual provisions;

8.2 The amendment of the contract to include clauses regarding the key performance indicators approved under the terms of Government Emergency Ordinance no. 109/2011 shall be done under the conditions and within the deadlines provided by law;

8.3 The contract shall terminate:

- a) Upon the expiration of the duration for which it was concluded, if it has not been renewed under the conditions of the law,
- b) By the provisional Director's resignation, with a 30-calendar-day notice period from the notification to the Company;
- c) Upon the death of the Director;
- d) By operation of law, due to AMEPIP's failure to approve;
- e) Upon the initiation of general insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings against the Company;
- f) By the provisional Director's breach of legal provisions regarding conflicts of interest, incompatibilities, including the integrity criteria provided by the Company's Code of Ethics, as well as non-compete obligations;
- g) By the breach of confidentiality obligations regarding any financial and/or commercial information qualified as confidential or privileged according to legal norms or contractual obligations undertaken by the Company;
- h) By termination by operation of law in cases provided by law, including in the event of initiating a liability action against Board members, as well as in the event of indictment for committing one of the offenses provided for in Article 6 para. (2) of Company Law no. 31/1990.
- i) By the withdrawal/non-granting of the ORNISS authorization (if applicable);
- j) Due to the impossibility of exercising the mandate/legal impediment – any circumstance that creates an unavailability lasting more than or equal to 90 consecutive calendar days, depriving the Board of Directors member of the ability to fulfill their duties, personally or by representation. In the event that the Director is definitively unable to exercise the mandate/due to a legal impediment, the termination will take effect from the date of expiration of the 90 consecutive days of incapacity.
- k) Amicably, by mutual agreement of the parties;
- l) In the event of legal impediments, as defined in this Contract;
- m) In the event of failed negotiations for the approval of financial and non-financial performance indicators;
- n) In the event of the initiation of the liability action against the members of the Board, their mandate shall terminate by operation of law;
- o) In the event of the Director's non-compliance with the obligation provided in Article 5.2.46.

Upon the termination of this Contract, the provisional Director shall immediately return to the Company all assets/fixed assets entrusted for use by them under this Contract.

8.4 The provisional Director's mandate may be renewed upon the request of the director, in accordance with the provisions of Article 25 of Annex no. 1 to Government Decision no. 639/2023 approving the methodological norms for the application of Government Emergency Ordinance no. 109/2011 on the corporate governance of public enterprises.

8.5 In the event of the revocation of the Director for just cause, the provisional Director shall not be entitled to receive compensation from the Company. To avoid any misunderstandings, "just cause" as understood in this article, without limitation, includes the provisional Director's non-fulfillment or improper fulfillment of any legal obligations or those stipulated in this contract, as well as the unjustified refusal to conclude additional acts to this contract that establish modifications occurring by the effect of law.

Art. 9. Integrity and Ethical Criteria

10.1 The provisional Director shall comply with the provisions of legal enactments, the Articles of Incorporation, and the Company's internal regulations regarding conflicts of interest, incompatibilities, including the integrity criteria stipulated in the Company's Code of Ethics, as well as the non-competition obligations.

10.2 The provisional Director has an obligation to maintain confidentiality regarding any financial, technical, and/or commercial information classified as confidential or privileged according to legal norms or contractual obligations undertaken by the Company.

Art. 10. Remuneration of the provisional Director

10.1 The provisional Director, in their capacity as a member of the Board, benefits from an indemnity established by the GMS under the conditions of the provisions of GEO no. 109/2011, Article 37 paragraphs (2), (3), (4), and (5).

10.1.1 The remuneration of the non-executive provisional director shall consist of a fixed monthly indemnity in the amount established by the Ordinary General Shareholders Meeting Resolution no. 12/27.04.2023, specifically a maximum of twice the average gross monthly salary earnings over the last 12 months for the activity carried out in accordance with the company's main object of activity, at the class level, according to the classification of activities in the national economy, as reported by the National Institute of Statistics prior to the appointment.

10.1.2 The remuneration of executive members of the Board of Directors consists of a fixed monthly indemnity and a variable indemnity.

10.2 The fixed indemnity due to the provisional Director during the mandate as a Board member is a monthly gross amount of _____ lei, equal with the indemnity established according to the company's Ordinary General Shareholders Meeting Resolution no. 12/27.04.2023 for the other members of the Board of Directors.

10.3 The payment of the fixed indemnity is made monthly, on the....., irrespective of the number of meetings in the month for which the payment is made.

Art. 11. Confidentiality Clauses, during and after the mandate

11.1 The term "Confidential Information" means and includes any information regarding the Company's activities that is not public. Without limiting the foregoing, confidential information includes:

- a) Contractual terms and any information regarding the Company's business partners, clients, agents, employees, contractors, investors, or suppliers, as well as the conditions under which the Company conducts economic activities with each of these persons;
- b) Any business, collaboration, or development plans of the Company at national and international levels, or, as applicable, the non-public details of such plans;
- c) Information regarding the Company's future plans, including, but not limited to, plans for expansion into geographical areas, market segments, or services; any information that would typically be included in the Company's financial statements, including, but not limited to, the amount of assets, liabilities, net worth, revenues, expenses, or net income of the Company, with the exception of information whose disclosure is authorized according to the Company's internal regulations;
- d) Any other information acquired by the Director during the exercise of their mandate that could reasonably be considered to reflect vulnerabilities of the Company;
- e) Any information received by the Company from third parties who, in turn, have a confidentiality obligation, the existence of which the Company is informed about;
- f) Any information derived from all of the above;
- g) Any copies of all the aforementioned information, except in situations where these copies are requested by a court of law or another public authority, under the conditions provided by law.

11.2 Use and Disclosure of Confidential Information

11.2.1 The provisional Director acknowledges that they have acquired and/or will acquire Confidential Information during or in connection with the exercise of their mandate within the Company, and that the use, regardless of purpose, of this Confidential Information, by themselves or by other persons, would seriously prejudice the Company, including through the breach of the Company's legal obligations. Therefore, the provisional Director agrees that, directly or indirectly, at any time, during the term of the contract concluded with the Company or at any time after its termination, and regardless of when and for what reason this contract may terminate, they will not use or cause the use of any Confidential Information in connection with any activities or business, except for the Company's public economic activities. Furthermore, they will not disclose or cause the disclosure of any Confidential Information to any individual, company, association, group, or any other entity, unless such disclosure has been specifically authorized in writing by the Company, or unless required by any applicable law, or ordered by a decision of a competent court or arbitral tribunal, or by any public authority legally empowered to receive such information;

11.2.2 Additionally, the provisional Director agrees to promptly notify the Company of any act by a court or arbitral tribunal, or other public authority, of the nature specified in the preceding paragraph. This notification will allow the Company to adopt protective measures or other suitable solutions under the law. The provisional Director will also provide any further assistance the Company may reasonably request to guarantee such measures or solutions. If the protective measures mentioned in the previous paragraph are insufficient, the Director will only provide the section of Confidential Information that is legally required by the public authority in question and will make all reasonable and legally founded efforts to obtain confidential treatment for any Confidential Information thus disclosed;

11.3 Use and Disclosure of Third-Party Information

11.3.1 The provisional Director understands that the Company sometimes receives information from third parties that the Company must treat confidentially and use only for limited purposes ("Third-Party Information");

11.3.2 The provisional Director agrees that, directly or indirectly, at any time during the contract with the Company, or at any time after its termination, and regardless of when and for what reason this contract terminates, they will not use or cause the use of any Third-Party Information, except where permitted by a written agreement between the Company and the respective third party, or unless required by any applicable law or by a decision of a competent court, arbitration tribunal, or any other public authority legally authorized to receive such information;

Additionally, the provisional Director undertakes to promptly notify the Company of any act by a court, arbitration tribunal, or other public authority of the nature specified in the preceding paragraph, so that the Company can adopt, in accordance with the law, protective measures or another appropriate solution. If protective measures are not sufficient, the Director will only provide the section of Third-Party Information as legally required.

11.4 Protection of Trade Secrets

No provision in this contract shall imply or in any way affect the Company's rights to protect its trade secrets by any means provided by law.

11.5 Duration of Confidentiality Obligations

The confidentiality obligations incumbent upon the provisional Director under this contract shall remain applicable even after its termination, regardless of the reasons, and shall be effective for a period of at least 5 years.

Art. 12. Director Evaluation Method

14.1 The execution of this mandate contract is subject to evaluation under the conditions of the law, according to the following types of evaluations:

- a) Self-evaluation of the Board's performance;
- b) Evaluation of the provisional Director's activity, carried out by the General Meeting of Shareholders or by the Public Tutelary Authority;
- c) Monitoring and evaluation of the fulfillment of the key performance indicators included in the mandate contracts and transmission of this information to AMEPIP;
- d) The evaluation of the directors' activity is carried out annually by the general meeting of shareholders, with the support of experts in such evaluations, where applicable. The evaluation targets both the execution of the mandate contract and the administration plan.

Art. 13. Participation in specialized advisory committees established within the Board according to law, and in other committees, depending on the specifics of the public enterprise

13.1 Within the Board, the following committees shall be compulsorily established by law: the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, the Risk Management Committee, and the Audit Committee. The Company's Articles of Incorporation may also provide for the possibility of establishing other advisory committees;

13.2 Within 10 calendar days from the date of appointment, the Board has the obligation to establish the committees specified in clause 13.1 above.

Art. 14. Clauses regarding Director Independence

14.1 With reference to the provisions of Article 138² para.(2) of Law no. 31/1990, the provisional Director declares, on their own responsibility, at the date of signing this contract, that, according to legal provisions, they are / are not an independent director.

14.2 In the event of a change in the declared status during the mandate, as per clause 14.1 above, the provisional Director undertakes to notify the Company within 3 calendar days of the change.

Art. 15. Force Majeure and Fortuitous Event

15.1 The parties have the obligation to notify each other in writing within a maximum of 5 (five) days from the occurrence of any cause of force majeure or fortuitous event, as defined by Law no. 287/2009 regarding the Civil Code, republished, as subsequently amended and supplemented. In general, they shall inform each other promptly of any impediments that may lead to difficulties in performing the object of this contract.

15.2 If the party invoking force majeure or a fortuitous event fails to comply with the notification obligation or the deadline provided in 15.1, that party will not be exempt from liability.

15.3 In the event of force majeure or a fortuitous event, the parties will make joint efforts to mitigate any potential damages that may result from the occurrence of such a cause.

Art. 16. Dispute Resolution Method

16.1 This contract is governed by good faith and interpreted in accordance with the provisions of Romanian law.

16.2 Any dispute arising between the Parties regarding the conclusion, execution, amendment, termination, or interpretation of the clauses of this Mandate Contract that cannot be resolved by mutual agreement, will be submitted for resolution to the competent courts in Romania.

Art. 17. Other Clauses

17.1 The provisional Director agrees to the Company's processing of personal data provided by the Director and/or acquired from third parties, including, but not limiting to the personal identification code and other personal identification data, to facilitate the legal relationships directly or indirectly related to this contract between the Company and third parties, as well as for statistical or marketing purposes. By this agreement, the provisional Director declares that they have been informed about the provisions of Law no. 190 of 2018 on the measures for the implementation of EU Regulation 2016/679 and the other normative acts in force regarding the processing of personal data and the free movement of such data, especially concerning the right of access to data, the right to intervene on data, and the right to object. The provisional Director declares that, upon completion of the processing operations, they agree that their personal data may be subject to further processing by the Company, shareholders, and, if applicable, other public authorities. The provisional Director declares that they have been informed that they have the right to withdraw their consent regarding the processing of personal data, their use for statistical or marketing purposes, their transfer abroad, and the receipt of commercial communications, at any time, by a written request addressed to the Company;

17.2 The provisional Director may not enter into an employment contract with the Company;

17.3 Notices

17.3.1 All notices/requests/communications regarding this contract, addressed by one party to the other, will be considered validly fulfilled if sent to the latter party by registered letter or fax/email, with acknowledgement of receipt to the addresses provided in Article 1 of this contract, or to those addresses subsequently declared by either party;

17.3.2 If a party changes its correspondence details mentioned in Article 1 of this contract, it must inform the other party of the new details within a maximum of 5 (five) business days. Failure to communicate will not incur liability for the party using the coordinates mentioned in the contract or the last notified ones, and notices sent to those coordinates will be valid;

17.4 A professional liability insurance policy covering risks related to the Director's mandate will be contracted and paid for by the Company in accordance with public procurement legislation. The insured value will be determined by the Public Tutelary Authority, and the policy conditions will be set by the Company.

17.5 This contract is not an employment contract and is not governed by labor law.

17.6 If certain clauses of this contract become legally ineffective, the validity of the other provisions of this contract will not be affected. In such situations, the parties will renegotiate in good faith any clause that has become legally ineffective, adding the thus renegotiated clause to the provisions of this contract.

17.7 If, at any time during the term of this contract, one party does not expressly insist on enforcing a specific provision of the contract, it does not mean that such party has waived such provisions or has waived the right to enforce them.

17.8 The legal framework applicable to this contract applies by right and produces legal effects by right without any prior formalities from the parties.

17.9 The provisional Director declares that, prior to their appointment by the General Meeting of Shareholders and acceptance of the mandate, they have taken note of the clauses of this contract and the Company's Articles of Incorporation, understand their terms, and accept them in full.

17.10 The provisional Director declares that, prior to their appointment by the General Meeting of Shareholders and acceptance of the mandate, they have taken note of the specific obligations incumbent upon them by the specific legal framework applicable to the Company, and they accept, understand, and firmly commit to observing the obligations of confidentiality and loyalty.

17.11 The provisional Director declares that they are not in any of the situations of incompatibility or conflict of interest provided by law, have full legal capacity to enter into this contract and to perform the obligations stipulated herein and in accordance with its provisions and the applicable legal framework, and meet the requirements stipulated by law and the Company's Articles of Incorporation for holding the position of director on the Board.

This Mandate Contract shall be appropriately adapted to any legal regulations applicable after its conclusion.

Annexes no. 1, 2, and 3 are an integral part of this Mandate Contract.

Therefore, we have concluded this Mandate Contract today, on _____, at Oil Terminal S.A., in 2 (two) original copies. The parties also declare that each has received one copy upon the signing of this Contract.

CONFIDENTIALITY POLICY

1. Definitions

The term "Confidential Information" means and includes any information regarding the Company's economic activity that is not public, according to (i) law, (ii) resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders, (iii) decisions of the Board of Directors, and (iv) the Company's internal regulations.

Without limiting the foregoing, confidential information includes:

- a) Contractual terms and any information regarding the Company's business partners, clients, agents, employees, contractors, investors, or suppliers, as well as the conditions under which the Company conducts economic activities with each of these persons;
- b) Computer programs (including source code and object code) or software developed, modified, or used by the Company;
- c) Information of any kind compiled by the Company, including, but not limited to, information related to products and services, advertising and marketing, as well as existing or potential clients, suppliers, and/or business partners;
- d) Algorithms, procedures or techniques, or essential ideas and principles underlying such algorithms, procedures or techniques developed by or those used by the Company or otherwise known to the Company (with the exception of any algorithm, procedure or technique that is in the public domain), regardless of whether these algorithms, procedures, techniques are part of a computer program or not, including, but not limited to techniques for:
 - identifying potential clients;
 - effective communication with existing or potential clients;
 - reducing operating costs or increasing system efficiency.
- e) The fact that the Company uses, has used, or has evaluated as a possibility to use any specific database, data sources, algorithms, procedures or techniques, or ideas developed or provided by a person other than the Company (including any algorithm, procedure, or technique in the public domain), regardless of whether such algorithms, procedures, or techniques are part of a computer program or not;
- f) Marketing strategies developed, investigated, acquired (from a third party or otherwise), evaluated, modified, tested, or used by the Company, or any information regarding or that could reasonably lead to the development of such a strategy;
- g) Information regarding the Company's future plans, including, but not limited to, plans for expansion into geographic areas, market segments, or services, any information that would ordinarily be included in the Company's financial statements, including, but not limited to, the amount of the Company's assets, liabilities, net worth, revenues, expenses, or net income, except for information whose disclosure is authorized by the Company's internal regulations;
- h) Information to be disclosed exclusively under the conditions stipulated in point 5;

- i) Any other information acquired by the Director in the course of exercising their mandate, which could reasonably be considered to reflect the Company's vulnerabilities, and which would help a competitor or potential competitor of the Company to successfully compete against the Company;
- j) Any information received by the Company from third parties who, in turn, have a confidentiality obligation of which the Company is notified;
- k) Any information derived from all of the above and
- l) Any copies of all the aforementioned information, except in situations where these copies are requested by a court of law or another public authority, under the conditions provided by law.

2. Use and Disclosure of Confidential Information

The provisional Director acknowledges that they have acquired and/or will acquire Confidential Information during or in connection with their mandate within the Company. They also acknowledge that the use of this Confidential Information by themselves or by others for the purpose of competing with the Company would seriously endanger the Company's ability to continue its economic activity.

Consequently, the provisional Director agrees that, directly or indirectly, at any time, during the term of the contract concluded with the Company or at any time after its termination, and regardless of when and for what reason this contract may terminate, they will not use or cause the use of any Confidential Information in connection with any activities or business, except for the Company's public economic activities. Furthermore, they will not disclose or cause the disclosure of any Confidential Information to any individual, company, association, group, or any other entity, unless such disclosure has been specifically authorized in writing by the Company, or unless required by any applicable law, or ordered by a decision of a competent court or arbitral tribunal, or by any public authority legally empowered to receive such information.

Additionally, the provisional Director agrees to promptly notify the Company of any act by a court or arbitral tribunal, or other public authority, of the nature specified in the preceding paragraph. This notification will allow the Company to adopt protective measures or other suitable solutions under the law. The Director will also provide any further assistance the Company may reasonably request to guarantee such measures or solutions.

If the protective measures mentioned in the previous paragraph are insufficient, the provisional Director will only provide the section of Confidential Information that is legally required by the public authority in question and will make all reasonable and legally founded efforts to obtain confidential treatment for any Confidential Information thus disclosed.

3. Use and Disclosure of Third-Party Information

The provisional Director understands that the Company sometimes receives information from third parties that the Company must treat confidentially and use only for limited purposes ("Third-Party Information").

The provisional Director agrees that, directly or indirectly, at any time during the contract with the Company, or at any time after its termination, and regardless of when and for what reason this contract terminates, they will not use or cause the use of any Third-Party Information, except where permitted by a written agreement between the Company and the respective third party, or unless required by any applicable law or by a decision of a competent court, arbitration tribunal, or any other public authority legally authorized to receive such information.

Additionally, the provisional Director undertakes to promptly notify the Company of any act by a court, arbitration tribunal, or other public authority of the nature specified in the preceding paragraph, so that the Company can adopt, in accordance with the law, protective measures or another appropriate solution. If protective measures are not sufficient, the Director will only provide the section of Third-Party Information as legally required.

4. Protection of Trade Secrets

No provision in this contract shall imply or in any way affect the Company's rights to protect its trade secrets by any means provided by law.

5. Disclosure of Information by the Company

During the execution of the Mandate Contract and upon its termination, the Director will promptly disclose and hand over to the Company, to the extent such disclosure would be reasonably considered to be in the Company's interest, in writing or in any form and manner reasonably required by the Company, the following information ("Information to Be Disclosed"):

(i) All and any algorithms, procedures, or techniques related to the Company's economic activities or the Director's work within the Company, along with the essential ideas and principles underlying such algorithms, procedures, or techniques conceived, originated, adapted, discovered, developed, acquired (from a third party or otherwise), evaluated, tested, or applied by the Director during their activity within the Company, regardless of whether such algorithms, procedures, or techniques have been incorporated into a computer program;

(ii) All and any marketing strategies, the essential ideas and principles underlying these strategies, and any information that could reasonably lead to the development of such strategies conceived, originated, adapted, discovered, developed, acquired (from a third party or otherwise), evaluated, tested, or applied by the Director during their activity within the Company;

(iii) Information regarding all and any products and services, the essential ideas and principles underlying these products and services, conceived, originated, adapted, discovered, developed, acquired (from a third party or otherwise), evaluated, tested, or applied by the Director during their activity within the Company; and

(iv) Any other ideas or information conceived, originated, adapted, discovered, developed, acquired (from a third party or otherwise), evaluated, tested, or applied by the Director during their activity within the Company, if these ideas or information could reasonably be considered useful or valuable to the Company.

6. Confidentiality of Information to be disclosed

The Parties agree that the Information to be disclosed under Section 5 is, in turn, subsumed within the scope of Confidential Information, as defined in Section 1 of this Annex. The provisional Director undertakes to use and preserve all Information to be disclosed under Section 5 in the same manner as Confidential Information, while also adhering to the provisions of Section 3 of this Annex regarding the confidentiality of Third-Party Information.

As an exception to the provisions of this section, information disclosed under Section 5 will not be considered Confidential Information within the meaning of this Mandate Contract, to the extent that it is unrelated to the company's economic activity and has general applicability, being usable in any industry.

7. Duration of Confidentiality Obligations

The confidentiality obligations incumbent upon the provisional Director according to this Annex, which is an integral part of the Mandate Contract, shall remain applicable even after the termination of the contract and shall be effective for a period of at least 5 (five) years.

NON-COMPETITION OBLIGATIONS

Non-competition

During their mandate with the Company, the provisional Director, directly or indirectly, agrees and undertakes:

- a) Not to engage in any activity or business that is in competition with or similar to the Company's main activity;
- b) Not to assist in any way any person whose activities are in competition with or prejudicial to the Company's commercial activities.

This non-compete obligation is effective within Romania, as well as in countries where the Company operates or intends to operate.

The non-compete obligations incumbent upon the Director under this Annex, which is an integral part of the Mandate Contract, shall remain applicable even after the termination of the contract and shall be effective for a period of at least 5 (five) years.

Non-Solicitation

During their mandate with the Company, the provisional Director, directly or indirectly, with or without commission, will not:

- a) persuade or attend to persuade any employee, consultant, supplier, buyer, or independent contractor of the Company to terminate their relationship with the Company;
- b) utilize, retain as a consultant or contractor, or cause the employment or retention of any employee, or the engagement/contractual relationship with any agent, consultant, service or product supplier, buyer, or independent contractor of the Company, in such a way that the action causes harm to the Company.

Breach of Non-Compete Obligations

Any breach of the obligations included in this Annex by the Director entitles the Company to claim damages from them for the losses incurred by the Company.

INTEGRITY CRITERIA

Considering that:

- Board of Directors members have an obligation to declare any personal interests that may conflict with the objective exercise of their duties in fulfilling their mandate;
- Board of Directors members have the obligation to take all necessary measures to avoid situations of conflict of interest and incompatibility;
- Early identification and timely removal of the premises for the occurrence of corrupt acts are priority and imperative;
- Ethics refers to individual behavior, within or outside an organizational context, which can be assessed or evaluated from the perspective of the Company's ethical values, principles, and rules;
- Integrity is the behavior assessed or evaluated as ethically correct. Integrity, as an individual value, refers to this ethical correctness, which cannot be separated into legal and professional correctness;
- Lack of integrity is a form of undermining the company's mission, leading to a negative organizational environment for employees and third parties, and affecting the legitimate interests of all involved, including the public interest,

The Company's provisional Director undertakes the following integrity criteria:

1. Is a competent, fair person, willing to contribute to the company's development;
2. Adheres to the values and principles of the company's code of ethics;
3. Makes decisions solely in the interest of the company (decisions are not made to gain financial benefits or other material advantages for themselves, family, or close associates);
4. Has no business dealings or contracts with the company for which they serve as a Board of Directors member, or with a partner company;
5. Ensures adherence to the principle of transparency regarding their decisions and actions;
6. Has a duty to declare any private interests related to the fulfillment of their mandate's specific responsibilities and to take action to resolve any conflicts of interest that may arise, thereby protecting the company's interest;
7. Is responsible for their decisions and actions to the shareholders and is subject to any performance evaluation in fulfilling the mandate;
8. Must not create financial or other obligations to organizations or individuals that would influence how they carry out the duties specific to the mandate;
9. Has no outstanding payments to the state budget as an individual;

10. Has not been criminally investigated, indicted, or convicted for committing a corruption offense or an act related to non-compliance with the regime of prohibitions, incompatibilities, conflicts of interest, or asset declarations, embezzlement, tax evasion, acts related to the exercise of administrator duties, or for any other acts provided by criminal law;
11. No finding of non-compliance regarding unjustified assets, conflict of interest, or incompatibility regimes, issued by the National Integrity Agency, has become final against them;
12. They have not been definitively established by a court decision as a collaborator or worker of political police, as a political police force, according to law, and they have not promoted/do not promote extremist ideas or actions (racism, xenophobia, anti-semitism);
13. They have not obtained titles or diplomas through plagiarism or intellectual theft proven by final court decisions;
14. They are not under judicial control for any type of offense, nor are they in pre-trial detention or house arrest;
15. They have not exhibited injurious, aggressive, or inappropriate behavior towards colleagues;
16. They effectively engage in promoting the company's integrity and offer their own example of integrity, sanctioning or adequately managing rule violations, from minor deviations to serious offenses.
